AI	Liebeskind	alielebeskind@gmail.com		Harbeson	Delaware	DE	19966	US	I am writing this message to say "Thank you" for releasing the new Department of Energy (DOE) studies on liquefied natural gas (LNG) exports detailing impacts on non-FTA LNG terminals when harms outweigh their public benefits. Under the Natural Gas Act, DOE must deny authorizations for non-FTA LNG terminals when harms outweigh their public benefits. According to the International Energy Association, the US already has more LNG capacity than is aligned with limiting warming to 1.5C. The oil and gas industry builds LNG facilities in Black, Brown, Indigenous, and low-income communities that it sees as "sacrificable".
