

CSLF Policy Group Meeting
19 June 2015

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

Tone Skogen

CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council Chair

Norway

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

- CSLF Capacity Building Fund established by the Ministers at the 2009 CSLF Ministerial in London
- Contributions committed total US $2,965,143.75
- Donors: Australia (via the Global CCS Institute), Canada, Norway, and the United Kingdom
- Focus: Emerging economy CSLF Members
- US $1,984,409 has been committed
- Approved 14 capacity building projects in 5 countries
 - 10 projects completed
 - 4 projects to be negotiated or revised

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

Brazil – 4 projects

- Total allocation US $686,450
 - Training program in carbon capture applied to mineral coal combustion and gasification process
 - Training program: CCS in the offshore environment
 - Knowledge base: Environmental impact assessment and Co₂ monitoring technologies
 - Workshop on CO₂ storage in the COM-opportunities in Portuguese language countries

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

China – 5 projects

- Total allocation US $712,000
 - Website on CCUS Technologies
 - Workshop on experience sharing among CCS demonstrations and pilot project
 - Workshop on legal and regulatory issues for CCS technology development
 - Exploring CCUS legal and regulatory framework in China (to be negotiated)
 - Roadmap on CCUS financing in China (to be negotiated)

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

Mexico – 2 projects

- Total allocation US $144,959 (plus US $32,541 ring-fenced for future interns)
 - Introducing CCS into academic programs
 - Internships on CCS (to be revised)

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

India – 1 project

- Total allocation US $250,000
 - Study tour to train Indian engineering stakeholders via NTPC (to be revised)

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

South Africa – 2 projects

- Total allocation US $166,000
 - Conduct workshops and conferences during South Africa's CCS week
 - Study on impacts of CCS on national priorities beyond climate change

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

Recent Events

- CSLF Capacity Building Fund monies were transferred from the United States Department of Energy to the Global Carbon Capture and Storage Institute (the Institute) on 24 February 2015
- This transfer triggers the Institute's role as the CSLF Capacity Building Fund Manager
- The funds currently available for allocation are US $924,072.80 (AU $1,180,169.60)

Report from the CSLF Capacity Building Governing Council

- Fund Manager to negotiate project contracts for two approved projects in China
- Fund Manager to seek revised Project Proposals from India and Mexico
- Workshops and other events are open to participants from all CSLF members
- The Governing Council welcomes submissions for the remaining available funds for the CSLF Capacity Building Program